

Awards

Residential Design Awards

The 1989/90 OAA/Canadian House & Home magazine Residential Design Awards were presented at the 100th Annual Meeting and Convention:

Single-family homes - Julian Jacobs Architects for Myron Gottlieb Residence; Honourable mentions: David Parrish Architect for David Parrish Residence, Miller Bobaljik Architect Inc. for M. Rollins Residence.

Single-family homes, additions or renovations: John Hix Architect Ltd. for D. & J. Day Residence; Honourable Mention: Kathleen Kurtin Architect for Denis Lefebvre & Bob Sirman Residence.

Conversion of non-residential to residential use, single or multiple housing: John Cowle Architect Inc. for Cloakwell Close Developments.

Multiple housing, new, additions and/or renovations: Honourable Mention, G. Randall Guthrie Architect Inc. for the Bellair Townhomes, Annau Associates Architects Inc. for The Balmoral Club Rest Home.

Non-profit housing, Roger du Toit Architects for Windward Non-profit Homes, Honourable Mention Allen Ensslen Barrett Architects for St. Nicholas Co-operative Inc.

AIA Citation for Excellence

1990 Convention Awards

Winners of the Residential Design Awards and their clients: (from left) Lynda Colville-Reeves, Canadian House and Home Publisher; Ted Wood, John Cowle Architect Inc.; Murray Cornblum, Trivest Development; Roger DuToit, architect; Catherine Nott, Windward Housing Co-Operative Inc.; Julian Jacobs, architect; Myron Gottlieb, owner Gottlieb Residence; David Day, owner Day Residence; John Hix, architect; Douglas Neville, President.